

A bit of History

Zion Lutheran Cemetery came about through trades and donations. History tells us a gentleman, last name of Erickson donated a one acre plot and later another gentleman, last name of Jacobson traded ten acres and donated part in 1959 for a total of eleven acres.

Pleasant Hill's first burial was Martha Johnson, buried in May of 1884. Zions first burial was Lars Sather in 1887. Zion's oldest buried is Nils Isaacson at 101 years old.

Valley View's first burial was Inger Michaelsen in 1906 ,and their oldest was Gladys Hevly at 100 years old.

Mission

As a part of its Stewardship, Peace Lutheran Church maintains and cares for Zion Lutheran, Pleasant Hill and Valley View cemeteries which continue to be a part of its congregational history.

Guidelines

All graves shall be held subject to the provisions and restrictions of all laws of Washington State.

The cost of a grave and endowed care shall be established by the Cemetery Committee and approved by the congregation.

A burial grave is 4X10 feet and a cremation grave is 2X3 feet and for uniformity, only 12"X24" headstones are permitted in Zions cremation. All markers and monuments shall have a 4in base on all sides and shall be level with the ground.

Only flat headstones are permitted at Valley View and are preferred in the cremation and new sections of Zion Lutheran, in order to facilitate the upkeep and care of the grounds. Any burial shall be encased in a minimum of a cement liner or vault.

No flowers, perennials, shrubs or trees shall be planted on or around graves.

Flowers left on a grave may be removed at the time of mowing.

Artificial flowers are discouraged during mowing season, April 1- October 1.

The Cemetery Committee reserves the right to exclude or remove from any grave, headstone or any other object which may conflict with the cemetery , or which they shall consider injurious to the general appearance of the grounds.

Visitors are reminded that these grounds are sacredly devoted to the interment of the dead and a strict observance of all that is proper in a place so dedicated will be required of all who visit here.

Endowed Care Fund

Efforts have been taken to assure families that the care and maintenance of the grounds will have financial stability.

Part of the monies received from the sale of a grave shall be placed in this fund, with the balance used for current maintenance and other needs.

Families are strongly encouraged to give memorials and designated gifts to this Fund.

Costs*

Grave 4'x10'	$1000
